

Does your project involve any of the following items?

- Plumbing Fixtures
- Exterior Doors
- Windows
- Cabinets
- Tile Materials

If you answered yes to any of the above items, these are highly time sensitive selection items and decisions need to be made as soon as possible! These are the items that can cause the most delays on a project if selections are not made and ordered well in advance.

HERE'S WHY:

Plumbing Fixtures: Our plumber needs to know what valve is necessary to install during the rough-in phase of the project. This phase happens at the beginning of a project which is why this selection is very time sensitive.

Exterior Doors and Windows: These on average take 6 to 8 weeks to arrive once they've been ordered. If your project requires a door or window (that is not a stock item), these need to be ordered as soon as possible to prevent delays in the schedule.

Cabinets: Custom cabinets can take up to 8 weeks to fabricate. If you are installing new custom cabinets, drawings need to be approved of at least 8 weeks in advance from the date of install requested.

Tile Materials: Tile selections will affect installation pricing. In order to accurately price tile installation, materials and tile layout decisions must be made at the beginning of a project. Tile materials can take up to 2 weeks to arrive, or specialty items could take longer, especially if shipped overseas. Start picking out tile now!
